

All-England have made some changes to their syllabus and rules for their 2017 finals

The main changes are:

The time allowed for some sections has been reduced;

The age groupings for duets, trios, groups have been changed, and there are now just three age groups rather than four;

A group will consist of a minimum of eight and a maximum of twenty-four dancers;

A dancer may enter a maximum of four duets and four trios/quartets.

The maximum age for soles is 18 years.

The age qualification for competitors is 1st September.
